

HOME TO STAY

MRS. DOW AFTER VISITING BOSTON BIRTHPLACE IS HAPPY TO RETURN TO GLENDALE

Mrs. Lillian Dow, who returned a few days ago after an absence of nearly a year, says she has come to stay as she considers Glendale her permanent home. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Robert Philp of Chicago, who will be here for several weeks. The two ladies were met at the train in Los Angeles by quite a delegation of relatives and friends and are now guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Volney E. Philp, on Orange street.

Mrs. Dow says she enjoyed her stay in Chicago where her daughter is very happily situated and she also had the pleasure of a tour of New England last spring during which she visited Portland, Me., Nashua, N. H. (where she was the guest of Mrs. J. F. Stark whose husband is a descendant of the "Mollie Stark" celebrated in Revolutionary history), Manchester, Concord, Milford and Wilton. Two happy weeks were spent in Boston, her old home city where she was born, lived and married. A delightful remembrance is her trip to Plymouth, Mass., where a great celebration of the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers is to be held in July. It was a treat to her to go over that historic ground which she has not seen since she was a child and to visit the old burial ground on a hill overlooking Massachusetts Bay and Plymouth Harbor. At the very apex of the hill stands the Pilgrim Monument. In this sacred ground she found the grave of Miles Standish and others whose names loom large in Colonial history.

RACERS LECTURED

JUDGE LOWE FINES AND STERNLY REPROVES TRUCK DRIVERS SPEEDING ON BROADWAY

Judge F. H. Lowe was really angry last Friday when two drivers of big trucks, one of Glendale and the other of Los Angeles, were brought before him charged with racing along Broadway. They went by the fire house at top speed and it happened that the city marshal and two police officers, one of them "Speed Cop" Trautwein, were standing on the walk in front of it. They sprang into a machine and gave chase, overhauling the racers after they had passed the city hall. It developed at their trial that the two drivers had made a bet as to the speed of their trucks and decided to have a race to settle it on crowded Broadway. One of the trucks had a 3½-ton load on and the other was empty. Judge Lowe fined the racers $20 and $15 respectively and sternly lectured them for endangering life and property by racing at top speed on a crowded thoroughfare. "If you are ever brought before me again on such a charge," said the judge, "your money will be of no avail, no matter how much you have, for it will mean a jail sentence."

L. A. HARBOR

MR. AND MRS. H. E. BARTLETT AND MR. AND MRS. WILLIS KIMBALL JOIN EXCURSION

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Kimball of this city on Friday afternoon accepted the invitation of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce to visit Los Angeles Harbor. About two hundred and fifty persons in two small boats enjoyed a personally conducted excursion around the harbor. In the course of their tour they passed the submarine base and saw the captured German submarines. They also saw the big Red Cross ship which had just brought the wives and families of officers transferred by the navy department to this coast. At 5:30 they witnessed at the San Pedro shipyards the launching of the "Hollywood," a ship built for the coastwise trade. It was decked with flowers and flying the stars and stripes. While watching this ceremony a lunch of sandwiches, tea and cake was served on the boats. After that the party was taken to Wilmington and at 6:30 saw the big steamer "Avalon" come in loaded with passengers, saw them disembark and go to their special train. At 7 p. m. the excursionist guests of the Chamber of Commerce left Wilmington for Los Angeles. Mrs. Bartlett says it is a most interesting trip which gives one a better idea of the magnitude and importance of the harbor than could be gained in any other way.

YOUNG EXPLORERS

RHUARK DUDLEY AND WILLIAM FARNER START ON TRANS-CONTINENTAL AUTO TOUR

Saturday afternoon two adventurous young souls visited the office of the Glendale Evening News and announced they were about to start on a transcontinental auto trip with New York City as an objective. They were Rhuark Dudley and William Farnar. A sturdy Ford equipped with complete camping outfit, including tent, cooking apparatus, etc., was to be their means of transportation and with it they proposed to advertise Southern California. One side of their car, they declared, would bear the inscription, "Rolls-Ruff from Glendale to New York and Return." On the other side "Snortin' Annie from California" would meet the eye. They also intended to carry plenty of Glendale pennants to advertise their home city, they declared.

When asked about their itinerary they said it would lead them east over the Santa Fe Trail and that they planned to take in the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. They will visit relatives along the way making quite a stop in Chicago where Rhuark Dudley has kinsmen. They also figure on stopping occasionally to take a job in the harvest fields and thus earn the money to finance their trip. If their hopes are realized and they reach the Atlantic coast they say they will inspect Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Boston and other large cities of the East as well as New York.

On their return they expect to make the tour of Yellowstone Park and from that point come west over the Lincoln Highway. They have left their itinerary with their parents who have promised to send them the Glendale Evening News to keep them posted on local happenings, and the boys have agreed to send occasional letters to the paper relating their adventures by the way. Rhuark Dudley was graduated from Glendale High last year. William Farnar will be a senior next year.

BEEFSTEAK ROAST

J. T. CRAMPTON GUEST OF HONOR AT UNIQUE DINNER CELEBRATING BIRTHDAY

J. T. Crampton was guest of honor at a very delightful surprise dinner and beefsteak roast served Friday evening at Griffith Park. The ladies of the Crampton family went in the afternoon to prepare the feast which was a full hot meal cooked over the fireplaces provided at the park. H. B. Howeth, who was in the secret, took possession of the special guest and so maneuvered affairs that he was brought to the scene at the psychological moment when the feast was ready for consumption.

Covers were laid for twenty-three, viz: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hallett, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Vivian Miller, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Howeth, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Isitt, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Isitt, and daughters Margaret and Jane Isitt, Mr. and Mrs. George Bristow, Mrs. J. W. Meyers, Mrs. Andrew, Mrs. Mabel Miesbergen, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Crampton and their daughter Miss Grace Crampton.

DEATH OF MRS. TRUE

Friends of Mrs. Bert L. Cline of 720 East Windsor Road will sympathize in the great grief that has come to her in the death of her mother, Mrs. Sarah B. True, who passed away at her home in Los Angeles Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, June 26, 1920. Mrs. Cline was with her mother all the week as were also her sisters, Mrs. F. L. Crandall and Mrs. Myrth True Smith. Death came as a release to the sufferer who had been an invalid for several years. She was a native of Massachusetts but had lived in Los Angeles for 33 years. She was 67 years of age but was wonderfully well preserved and did not look to be more than forty-five. Besides the three daughters mentioned she leaves a son, Roy E. True, who resides in Venice, Cal. Funeral services, which will be private, will be held in the Little Church of the Flowers Wednesday at 2 o'clock, with the Seavern Company in charge.

DEATH OF CLAYTON H. EVANS

At 122 East Laurel street, Clayton H. Evans died June 26, 1920, leaving a wife, Margaret C. Evans. The remains which are in charge of the L. G. Seavern Company, will be taken to Haddonfield, N. J., for interment and no funeral services will be held here. Deceased was fifty-eight years old and was a native of New Jersey.

M'ADOO BOOM GROWS

NOW SAID TO HAVE BACKING OF PRESIDENT; TAMMANY LIKELY TO DESERT COX FOR EDWARDS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—With the Democratic convention opening at noon today, chief interest shifted from the platform to the candidates for the first time since pre-convention issues became interesting. This was largely due to a sudden spurt in the McAdoo boom. There was every evidence that a group of independents planned to seize control of the convention and name McAdoo. How much success they will meet depends largely on their success in organizing their forces. They were busily engaged during the morning in tightening up their organization. If they succeed McAdoo will be nominated within the first six ballots and some even predicted the fourth ballot would nominate him.

As the morning wore on, several events added emphasis to the McAdoo movement. Several cabinet officers known heretofore to be favorable to McAdoo, began actively campaigning for him. The report spread rapidly that Wilson favors McAdoo causing Palmer's friends to seek frantically for a denial from the White House. Secretaries Meredith and Colby were spreading the word that McAdoo is the man.

The rumor spread that Tammany had decided to desert Cox because he seemed willing to accept a dry plank and it seemed likely that Tammany would switch to Governor Edwards.

Much depends on whether the unit rule under which the delegations will vote as a unit is finally effective. A fight on the unit rule is expected before the rules committee and probably on the convention floor.

The last development was in the form of word that Bryan had told friends that while he favored Senator Owen, McAdoo is not unacceptable.

REVIVAL ENDS IN BLOODSHED

MEN ATTEMPT TO BREAK UP RELIGIOUS MEETING; MEET WITH SERIOUS RESISTANCE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

TOLEDO, June 28.—A religious revival that ended in a gun battle early today between two parties of fifty men in a country churchyard over the Michigan line near here, brought death to one man and probably mortally wounded another.

The church was surrounded by men who, according to witnesses, attempted to break up the meeting. Men of the congregation went home for weapons. When they returned a deputy sheriff ordered the crowd to disperse. He was greeted with a hail of bullets. The church defenders fired. The attackers then threw down their weapons and surrendered after a few casualties.

MEXICAN ENVOY TO CONVENTION

GENERAL OBREGON SENDS REPRESENTATIVE TO PERSUADE DEMOCRATS NOT TO INSERT MEX. PLANK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MEXICO CITY, June 28.—General Obregon has sent a representative to San Francisco in the hope of persuading the Democratic convention not to mention the Mexican issue in its platform.

RETALIATION IN IRELAND

SINN FEINERS CAPTURE GENERAL LUCAS AND BRITISH TROOPS RAID FERMOY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DUBLIN, June 28.—A dispatch received here today stated that British troops had raided Fermoy, doing considerable damage, in retaliation for the capture of General Lucas by Sinn Feiners.

NEW YORK BETS ON M'ADOO

EVEN MONEY OFFERED ON HIS CHANCE TO SECURE THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION OF DEMOCRATS

NEW YORK, June 28.—Betting in the financial district today favored McAdoo with even money for the Democratic presidential nomination.

"PERSHING FOR PRESIDENT" BOOM

LEWIS CAVILLIER, MEMBER OF NEW YORK DELEGATION, TO BRING CANDIDATE BEFORE CONVENTION

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Assemblyman Lewis Cavillier of New York, member of the New York delegation, today launched the "Pershing for President" boom.

"There are no reasons, at least in the minds of American voters, why Pershing should not be the logical Democratic nominee for president," said Cavillier, "except the dreamer Bryan, whose sense of realization is often defeated and who loses himself in vague generalities and pointless abstractions. The American voters have repudiated Bryan three times at the polls, so his opinion does not count."

BLUEBIRD TELLS

ANNOUNCES APPROACHING MARRIAGE OF HELEN HARDEN AND VARDAMAN BAILEY

In a unique manner Mr. and Mrs. J. Franklin Harden of 346 Vine St., this city, announced the approaching marriage of their daughter, Helen Harden, to Vardaman Bailey, of Eagle Rock, at a party given Saturday afternoon at the Harden residence.

Each guest was given a string of wedding bells and every time the young lady answered a question in the negative she was required to surrender a bell which was supposed to signify a refusal of marriage. At the close of an hour the young lady who had collected the most bells received the prize—a tiny birdcage decorated with forget-me-nots, blue ribbons tied in true-love knots, wedding bells and silver horseshoes, all signifying good luck and happiness. In the cage was a bluebird holding in its bill a card bearing the initials of the betrothed and the date of the wedding, July 19th. Miss Margaret Gregg of Glendale was the fortunate winner of the prize.

The house was tastefully decorated with matillija poppies and magnolia blooms. The guest list included classmates of the honoree in the Southern Branch of the University of California from which the bride-to-be was a June graduate, besides sorority sisters from Los Angeles and guests from Eagle Rock, Whittier and Glendale.

Mrs. J. T. Bailey of Eagle Rock and Mrs. Ollendorf of Los Angeles assisted Mrs. Harden.

THOUSAND YEARS

EVANGELIST PROUT FORETELLS MILLENNIUM OF PEACE ON EARTH

That this earth is to see, not a millennium of joy, but an eternity of peace, happiness and contentment, when poverty, crime, sickness, death, pain and sorrow will forever be at an end, when the inhabitants shall plant and eat, build and inhabit, and "long enjoy the work of their hands," was the assertion of Evangelist C. S. Prout, in his discourse at the Bible Tabernacle at Harvard street and Central avenue last night, when he spoke on the subject, "Will Jesus Reign on Earth One Thousand Years?"

"The word 'millennium' is coined from two Latin words, 'mille,' meaning one thousand, and 'annum,' meaning years," said Mr. Prout. "Many people think the millennium will be a time when Christ will reign on earth. Some even tell us Christ's reign on earth already has begun. But if, with all the suffering and misery, war and pestilence, accidents and calamities on sea and land—if, I say, this is the beginning of the millennium, what will the end be? No, friends, the millennium has not yet begun, and when it does begin, it will be far different than many picture it."

"God's Word tells us plainly that we never can hope for one thousand years of happiness through the gateway of politics, through a federation of churches, nor through the conversion of the world. It never will be possible to make everybody good by law. When you begin to use the club to force people to go to church, you will have a reign of terror. That was tried during the Dark Ages, and history records it as one of the most terrible periods of earth's history."

"Christ Himself teaches in Matthew 7:14 that 'straight is the gate, and narrow the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it,' and again that 'wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat.' Again, in the twenty-first verse we are told that not all will be saved. Yet again we are assured in Second Timothy 3:13 that 'evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.' So we cannot expect that everybody will be converted. The gospel will be preached to all the world, but not all will accept."

"Revelation 20 teaches us that the one thousand year period will be bounded by the resurrection of the righteous at its beginning, and the resurrection of the wicked at its close. When Christ comes accompanied by all His angels, and halts His cloudy chariot above the earth, He calls forth His followers from their dusty beds. The Scripture assures us in John 14:1-3; First Thessalonians 4:16,17; Matthew 24:30, 31, and First Corinthians 15:51-56, that the resurrected dead, and the

PROFITABLE TOUR

MRS. C. H. TOLL RETURNS AND SAYS SHE HAS LEARNED MUCH ABOUT U. S.

Mrs. Charles H. Toll of Kennel Road returned Saturday and says she is very glad to be at home although she had a delightful and very profitable trip in the sense of learning many things about our United States that were new to her, and she feels she has been mentally and physically benefited.

One of the disappointments of her tour was reaching Chicago a few hours too late to profit by the tickets she and her son had to the gallery of the Republican convention. As they were making ready to go they heard the newsboys under their hotel windows beginning to shout "All about the nomination of Harding and Coolidge."

The Biennial Convention of Women's Clubs in Des Moines was a great success, she says and an inspiration to every club woman, particularly those carrying official responsibilities. The weather was ideal and the Iowa hostesses declared it was a proof of their hospitable spirit to provide California weather when so large a delegation of Californians was present. The delegates all told numbered 1511. Of these fifty-seven were from Los Angeles and eleven from the L. A. Ebell of which Mrs. Toll is president. Besides the excellent programs, a great deal of gaiety was provided in the way of teas and receptions, dinners and luncheons and at the last they were entertained with a wonderful pageant staged out of doors at a country club near Des Moines in beautiful, rolling wooded country. It was an allegorical pageant showing the growth and development of Iowa from early Indian days to the present. So well and beautifully was it done that one could interpret it without a program. Six hundred performers took part and the music was very beautiful and there were many fine singers and a large orchestra. Mrs. MacDowell, widow of the composer, sent a good deal of her husband's unpublished manuscript to be used in the pageant.

Mrs. Toll was much impressed by the splendid organization of the Iowa women which manifested itself in all sorts of minute details from the time she was met at the train by a local committeewoman who at once took charge of her baggage and Kenwood, paying $8500 for it, and Dr. Mapes of Los Angeles bought a new residence recently completed by Nathan Rigdon on Patterson avenue, the purchase price being $5650. The three homes were sold by E. T. Allen of the H. L. Miller Co.

S. S. PARTY

MISS VERA SINCLAIR ENTERTAINS GIRLS AND BOYS OF INTERMEDIATE CLASSES

Members of the Intermediate class of girls in the Glendale Presbyterian Sunday School and of Mr. Hoffman's class of boys were very pleasantly entertained Friday evening at the home of Miss Vera Sinclair on Sinclair avenue. All sorts of games and game-like diversions were played including a track meet in which four groups each taking the name of some college or other designating title, participated, the effort in the various events being to capture the grand pennant which was won by the group which had labeled itself "The Boob Centers." There was also an "art exhibit" contest in which participants were expected to locate the pictures fastened to trees and branches by the catalogue title. The party was out of doors in the grounds of the Sinclair home and everybody appeared to have a very jolly time. Among those present were: Isabel Spear, Elizabeth Edmonds, Martha Eilers, Louise Holt, Margaret West, Margaret Fife, Estelle Bellue, Elsie and Jessie Levy, Mary Simpson, Madge Harrison, Hope Ireland, Phyllis Baker, Lorraine Fudmayer, Jessie Gaskin, Annie Fudmayer, Stephen Fairchild, Harry Dreyer, Francis Dreyer, Alvin Brown.

IMPRESSING THE YOUNG IDEA

One of the favorite pastime of presidential campaigns is to delve into the early lives of aspiring candidates to reveal the homely virtues implanted in boyhood, through habits of democracy, industry and frugality. It is in this way that the politicians seek to impress the electorate with the substantial qualities of the nominees and to humanize them in popular esteem.

It is doubtful, however, if many adults are swayed by this appeal. The country is so young, most of our ancestral trees so short—and sturdy—that most of our successful men can point with pride to having been forced to rough it at a tender age.

But the "poor boy" argument does captivate and stimulate one great class. The American boy will stand with eyes alight at hearing recounted the early exploits of great men.

The early lives of the candidates will be paraded in full splendor during the coming months, no doubt, to be the subject of much chicanery from the stump orators and of much banter and loud guffaws from the irreverent paragraphers.

But the homely stories will be of infinite inspiration to millions of young Americans, in many of whom will be lighted the fires of ambition and resolve that may burn brightly for years to come.

Miss Ida Waite, principal of the Colorado Street School, is leaving Wednesday on a tour which will take her to San Francisco, Salt Lake, Yellowstone Park, Seattle and Cashmere, Washington. She does not expect to return until school opens in the fall. In her trip to Salt Lake she will be accompanied by Miss Clara Midcalf, who goes as the delegate of the City Teachers' Club to the convention of the National Educational Association, which is to be held in that city.

Harry Kahn and son, Lee, of Richmond, Virginia, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jahms of 459 Salem St. Mr. Kahn plans to buy a home in Glendale as Mrs. Kahn and daughter expect to follow him in August.

Advertise it, or advertise for it in the Evening News.

Kent & Son have the contract for building a garage for a temporary residence for Frank N. Motsch, on the north side of Kenneth Road, not far from Grand View avenue. A fine residence will be built later. Mr. Motsch has sold all his Glendale property and is now managing a grocery store in Hollywood, but prefers to live in Glendale vicinity.

The Pilgrimage Play featuring the life of Christ which is to have a three-weeks' run in the out-of-door theater near Hollywood and which the Ralstons of this city have been rehearsing for several weeks, has its opening presentation tonight. Mr. Ralston has quite an important part and his son, Clarence Ralston, is also in the cast as Malcus, a Roman soldier. Mrs. Ralston and her daughter, Esther, are now working with the Charley Chaplin Company.

Mrs. J. H. Braly of North Brand boulevard has had the pleasure of entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Kirk, of Santa Barbara. She has not been here for several months and is very welcome. Mr. and Mrs. Braly had planned to motor to the Yosemite, but changed their minds after talking with friends just returned from there who reported the roads rough and muddy. A little later they are going to their cabin in Big Bear.

Rev. R. Warren Mottern preached his farewell sermon at the Lutheran Church yesterday morning and will rest from ministerial work for the next two years. When Rev. Mottern came to Glendale a few years ago there were less than 20 members here. By unremitting toil he has built up a goodly congregation and built a fine church and parsonage worth at least $10,000, it is said. He has also been a distinct factor in the religious and business life of the city.

J. L. Whaley, who drove to San Francisco about two weeks ago, intending to ship his auto from there to Buenos Aires, while he went overland to New York and there took ship for the same point, was held up in the bay city by the stevedores' strike and was unable to ship his car, so he decided to motor down to the old home in Glendale and see his parents and friends during his enforced waiting. He will return to San Francisco this week.

REDEEMER SERIES

REV. W. E. EDMONDS PREACHES ON THE SIGNS OF THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST

A large congregation gathered Sunday morning to hear the fourth sermon in the "Return of the Redeemer" series being given by Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Presbyterian Church. The text was taken from Matt. 24:3, "Tell us when shall these things be and what shall be the sign of thy coming and of the end of the world?"

It is the great question we are face to face with—"And when shall the end be?" God will always reveal to His people all that He wants them to know. Jesus Christ said: "I have many things to say unto you which you cannot bear now. Our position is to be earnestly watching and waiting. There has never come to the sons of men any distinct knowledge of the time for Christ's coming. When ye see these things know that the time is at your door. Are there any reasons by which we may know we are at the close of this dispensation? We have a perfect right to look at some of the signs. It will be a blessed day when the Lord Jesus Christ shall come to take out His own. We will do all we can to co-operate with God. We are taking it for granted that everybody believes that this old world cannot go on for ever and ever as it always has.

The first sign is the wide spreading interest in the matter of prophecy. We are realizing that prophecy many times means history. There has never been a time when so many people have been interested in this subject. Second, one of the signs of the times of the present is apostasy. Men who used to be stalwart turned aside. Let no man deceive you—there shall be a falling away in the latter days. Third, another sign is the distress of nations. The fourth sign is the spirit of worldliness which is manifest on every hand. The spirit of worldliness has become rampant in the church. What are we living for?

There is as I see it an absolute lack of putting God first. Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. We find a letting down in family worship. Another sign is the coming back of Israel to their own. Through all the ages the hand that has been lifted against God's people has been paralyzed. When Germany allied itself to the Turk it settled its defeat. No study of religion could be complete without the Jew. He is interwoven into all history from the time of Abraham to the end of time. When the Jews receive Jesus Christ and acknowledge Him as a nation they will become the world's greatest evangelists. Let us lift up our eyes and see these signs which are pointing to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Let us lift up our eyes in the spirit of brotherly love. "What I say unto you I say unto you all—watch."

In connection with the sermon, Rev. Edmonds exhibited the new Jewish flag, and briefly explained its symbolic characters, and meaning.

CLINGAN—BROWN

Miss May Brown, eldest daughter of Mrs. O. L. Kilborn of 217 West Lomita, was married at 10 o'clock this morning, in Los Angeles, to Donald Clingan, who is connected with the advertising department of the Herald. After a wedding trip of ten days they will make their home temporarily on Orchard avenue, Los Angeles, but expect to eventually live in Tennessee or Mississippi.

Miss Elizabeth Allen of the city hall force enjoyed a motor trip with Los Angeles friends to Laguna Beach, San Juan Capistrano and other points in that vicinity, Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Byniff of 201 North Kenwood returned home Thursday from Westlake Hospital, where she underwent a serious operation. She is recovering rapidly and is very much pleased to be at home again.

The summer schools at Intermediate, Broadway, Pacific Avenue, Colorado and Cerritos Avenue buildings began this morning. There will be half-day sessions and the term lasts six weeks.

The Colonial bungalow recently completed at 231 North Cedar by Contractor C. A. Lessard has been sold to H. W. Joss and wife, who recently came here from New York, by C. A. Lessard, Jr., of the Lessard Realty Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Babcock and son, Bobbie, of Rocky Ford, Colo., are visiting Mr. Babcock's father, L. W., and sister, Miss Ruth Babcock, at 413 North Isabel. They were here a year ago and marveled greatly at the many improvements they noted in the city since that time. They expect to start for home July 6th. They left Rocky Ford, where Mr. Babcock is interested in a big lumber business, on June 1st, and visited several lumber milling centers in the northwest on their way. They have fully made up their minds to locate in Glendale before very long.

WEATHER FORECAST: Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

FATHERS' DAY FITTINGLY OBSERVED, ALSO "WEIGHED IN THE BALANCE"

Yesterday was "Fathers' Day" at Central Christian Church and Rev. Cole preached on the virtues and faults of Zebedee, father of the Apostles James and John. He described him as a successful business man and a good father who had raised his sons to God fearing manhood and industrious habits, but who had left their religious training and advancement to the mother, instead of sharing the burden. He drew from this the lesson to present day fathers to make confidants of their sons and assist the mothers in training them to become religious workers and teachers.

The evening sermon was on the story of Belshazzar's feast, when the handwriting on the wall proclaimed his failure as a ruler, the dismemberment of his kingdom and his own immediate destruction. Our lives are being weighed daily, said the speaker, and we should see to it that there is no handwriting on the wall when the accounts are about to be made up.

Reports were given at the morning service of the picnic held the day before at Brookside Park by the Sunday School, when about 50 were present and had a most enjoyable time. A suggestion was made by Pastor Cole that, beginning with Sunday, July 11th, the Bible school should have state days, commencing with California, when the native sons and daughters of the school should decorate the room and take charge of the Bible school service that morning. Then would come Kansas Sunday, Illinois Sunday and so on, the residents of each state vying with the others in beauty of decorations and large attendance.

As Wednesday of this week is a fifth night, it will be given up to the usual quarterly church social, beginning with a supper at 6 o'clock, followed by prayer meeting and ending in a general social with an interesting program of songs, readings and addresses.

conveyed Mrs. Toll to her hotel destination in her own automobile, afterwards looking after her comfort in every possible way during the convention. As a special compliment, the California delegation was given reservations at the fine new hostelry Fort Des Moines which was the convention headquarters. To provide a fund for the entertainment of the Biennial the club women of the state had assessed themselves 50c each and this gave them ample money to carry out their plans. At the opening reception the Governor of Iowa and his lady stood in the receiving line and welcomed the delegates.

The retiring president was Mrs. Josiah Cowles of Los Angeles who presided at the sessions in a manner which made the delegates from her state very proud.

The newly elected president, Mrs. Thomas Winters of Minneapolis, is described by Mrs. Toll as a very brilliant woman of dignity and charm, who has a large following in the middle west.

Three invitations for the next convention which will be held two years hence, were received. One of these was from Hot Springs, Ark., one from Chicago and a third which at first inspired amusement, was from Shanghai, China. But the woman who presented it, a member of the large English colony there, was very much in earnest and inasmuch as the Federation is international in scope, the idea took root in the minds of many delegates who were disposed to entertain it seriously. The lady who conveyed it mentioned the transportation problem declaring it could undoubtedly be solved by chartering a special transport which the delegates would control and by means of which the cost of the trip would be very greatly reduced. She explained that Shanghai has many fine English hotels. The matter will of course be in the hands of the federation officers to decide.

Mrs. Toll is to be installed as president of the Los Angeles Ebells this afternoon. The election took place during her absence in the east.

Although the way of life be long, And rough and hard the sledding, It isn't where you are that counts, But whither are you heading.

An Embarrassing Position for a Wife

The unexpected happens. The husband is taken away. Money must be provided at once, but because the money stood in the husband's name at the bank it couldn't be drawn out until the court said so.

A joint account in this bank standing in two names—husband and wife—can be drawn out by either on the signature of either. When the unexpected happens a joint account smooths the way most happily.

Why not open a joint account at this bank?

THOUSAND YEARS

living Christians will be gathered from all the world, and that all these will be taken by Christ to heaven.

"Another fact in connection with Christ's coming is that all who persistently refuse to accept His offers of mercy, and who will not surrender their lives to Him, will be unable to endure the brightness of His coming, but will be slain by the great glory, as is indicated by such scriptures as Second Thessalonians
2:8, Jeremiah 25:33 and Revelation
1:7.

"All the cities of earth will be broken down by a mighty earthquake at that time, mountains and islands will be moved from their foundations, and the earth will be reduced to chaos, as it was in the beginning—emptied of its inhabitants and desolate, as we learn from Revelation 18 and Jeremiah 4:23-29.
The word translated 'deep' in Genesis 1:2, where the earth is referred to as having been without form, is the same as that translated 'bottomless pit' in Revelation 20:1-3, in which place Satan is to be bound. A chain of circumstances will have put a stop to his work. On this desolate earth the devil will be confined, and will have opportunity to reflect upon the terrible ruin he has wrought.

"The righteous are in heaven during this time; the wicked are dead.
The devil is without victims. Revelation 20:6 tells us those who are raised to life in the first resurrection are the ones who are to live and reign with Christ one thousand years. Where? Not on this earth.
No, no. But in the place of those mansions Christ said He went to prepare.

"Christ will, at the close of the millennium, come to earth a third time, and will call to life the wicked who have lived and died upon the earth from Adam's day to the end.
Revelation 20 says Satan 'shall be loosed a little season.' Again he has victims. He goes out to deceive the wicked, they will arm themselves to make war against Christ, and as we read the story in this twentieth chapter of Revelation, we find that they will be destroyed by fire and brimstone from heaven like Sodom

Visit," Williamson.

and Gomorrah. The fire that destroys the wicked will purify the earth.

"And I saw a new heaven and a new earth," says John in Revelation 21, 'for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away. And God shall wipe away all tears. . . .
neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.'
"We never shall be able to create a millennium by legislation, but God, in His own good time, will bring about an eternity of peace. Isaiah 65: 18-25 describes that day in glowing terms. Even wolf and lamb shall then feed together, and none shall hurt nor destroy."

No meeting will be held at the tent tonight, but Tuesday night at 7:45 the subject will be "Heaven Located."

SOME ONE OUGHT TO DIE HERE

"Permit me to die at your feet!"
he cried desperately.
She shivered. "I see no objection to that," she answered. "All that papa said was that you shouldn't hang around here."
